Call for applications

The Center for Institutional Studies (CInSt, HSE University) and International laboratory of Intangible-driven Economy (IDlab, HSE University) and the Academic Writing Center (AWC, HSE University) are pleased to announce a call for applications for the XVIth Russian Summer School on Institutional Analysis (RSSIA). The School will have online sessions (April, 2022) and one offline session (the first week of July, 2022) in Tsarskoye Selo, five minutes' walk from palaces and parks.

The aim of the RSSIA is to promote empirical research in various fields of economics and foster the communication and expertise exchange between early-career researchers and established scholars, faculty and students. The RSSIA-2022 will continue the tradition of previous Summer Schools with project proposal presentations and discussions, tutorials, faculty lectures, and networking opportunities.

The working language is English.

The RSSIA-2022 will support participants on their way from a research idea to a paper. Intense work on papers in small groups, feedback and support from faculty members for three months are among the major features of the RSSIA-2022. As a participant, you will have an opportunity:

❖ to attend lectures of distinguished experts in various areas of empirical economics:
   Dennis C. Coates (University of Maryland and HSE University),
   Sergey Popov (Cardiff Business School and HSE University),
   Koen Schoors (Ghent University and HSE University),
   Paola Valbonesi (University of Padova and HSE University),
   Nick Zubanov (University of Konstanz).

❖ to present and discuss stages of your current research during seminars

❖ to exchange your research experience with other the RSSIA participants and faculty members

❖ to upgrade your skills of research writing with Svetlana Suchkova (Head of AWC at HSE University).

All this will consequently lead to enhancing your research.

The deadline for applications is March 28th, 2022.

Participants are selected on the basis of their applications and a one-slide presentation. To apply online:

❖   fill in the registration form

❖   write a motivation letter (no longer than 300 words)

❖   provide a current research project description (no longer than 1,500 words + references).

Please, find the research project proposal requirements on the application page.

There is no registration fee.

Organizers will provide participants with accommodation and meals during the offline session. However, participants will have to cover their travel and visa costs.

NB: Only fully vaccinated participants are allowed to participate in the face-to-face sessions. Few places will be available for online participation.

See more details about the RSSIA-2022 and the application on the website http://rssia.hse.ru If you have any questions about the RSSIA- 2022, please contact us by email: rssia@hse.ru.

HIGHER SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS
NATIONAL RESEARCH UNIVERSITY